

GoToMeeting Corporate Online Meetings Made Easy™

GoToMeeting Corporate is the easiest and most cost-effective way to satisfy all online collaboration needs, ranging from large events to small ad-hoc meetings.

As organizations become dispersed across the globe, they need to ensure that employee productivity remains high and communication with prospects, customers and employees stays strong by investing in Web collaboration tools. High costs, complex products and low employee adoption have discouraged many businesses from justifying the purchase of an online meeting solution — but GoToMeeting Corporate has proven to be an exception.

Present, train and collaborate online — anytime, anywhere

Key benefits

- Increase productivity by improving your presentation and collaboration capability
- Significantly reduce travel and operational costs
- Boost sales by enhancing interactions with customers and prospects
- Expand your access to partners and subject matter experts
- Receive a faster and greater return on investment

By enabling individuals and organizations to meet and present online, GoToMeeting Corporate gives businesses a significant competitive advantage. They become more flexible than they ever imagined — users can deliver sales presentations, collaborate with colleagues, perform product demonstrations, train customers and employees and safely share confidential information online from anywhere, at any time.

GoToMeeting Corporate transforms the way online meetings and Webinars are conducted through its unique approach to functionality and cost. GoToMeeting Corporate is the easiest, most secure and best-performing online collaboration solution available. Its All You Can Meet® flat-fee subscription model provides organizations with a tremendous ROI while dramatically increasing employee productivity.

Do more, travel less

Easiest to Use — The streamlined interface makes it extremely easy for presenters and meeting attendees to connect right away. Now everyone can access larger and more remote audiences with do-it-yourself online meetings and Webinars.

Fastest — Online meeting and Webinar participants get the best user experience regardless of Internet connection or desktop graphics being shown.

Most Cost-Effective — With our All You Can Meet® subscription model, there are no limits on meeting or Webinar duration or frequency, and no overage charges. As a result, your users can hold meetings and Webinars more often and increase their productivity.

Most Secure — End-to-end 128-bit encryption and other industry-standard security features ensure that confidential information remains private. Security is built in, with no additional configuration necessary.

Easiest to Manage — The feature-rich Administration Center is simple to use and requires no end-user training or configuration.

GoToMeeting features

Desktop Viewing — Broadcast a view of your PC or Mac desktop to meeting attendees for presentations or collaboration. Show others any application or file on your computer.

One-Click Meetings — Start instant meetings with a single click using our integrated Meet Now buttons.

Specific Application Sharing — Share only the application you choose, helping to avoid distractions and protect your privacy.

Share Keyboard and Mouse Control — Seamlessly transfer control of the presenter's keyboard and mouse to other users.

Instantly Change Presenters — Easily view other attendees' desktops by switching presenters on the fly.

Drawing Tools — Draw, highlight or point to items right on the screen.

Easy Integration — Start or join meetings through Microsoft® Outlook®, Microsoft Office®, IBM® Lotus Notes® or instant-messaging applications.

Mac® Support — Mac users can host and join GoToMeeting sessions.

Recording and Playback — Save a meeting locally to review or share later.

Unlimited Audio — Use included VoIP and toll-based phone options.

Integrated Toll-Free Audio Service — Add integrated toll-free audio service with convenient toll-free packages purchased from Citrix Online Audio.

Web Services API — Integrate GoToMeeting Corporate functionality into your own company Web site.

“Far easier to learn and costs a lot less, too.”
